

TRAINING SALE!

For the entire month of September, our self-paced online facilitator trainings for volunteers are just $49!

If you know someone looking to become a SMART Recovery facilitator or that wants to learn how to better support a loved one, please let them know about this opportunity. Our training programs empower people with the tools and knowledge to help themselves and others navigate the path to recovery with confidence and success.

Why Take SMART Recovery Training?

- Proven Techniques: learn practical, evidence-informed tools and strategies.
- Community Impact: join a global community committed to positive change.
- Flexible Learning: our online training is designed to fit your schedule.
- Affordable: this special $49 offer is our way of working to make training accessible to everyone during National Recovery Month (scholarships and discounts offered for students, veterans, and others— email training@smartrecovery.org for more information).

Don't miss out!

This offer is only available from September 1st to September 30th.

Note: No code required! Simply sign up and ride the wave of the Recovery Month price that will be applied!
